what is a high school . . .

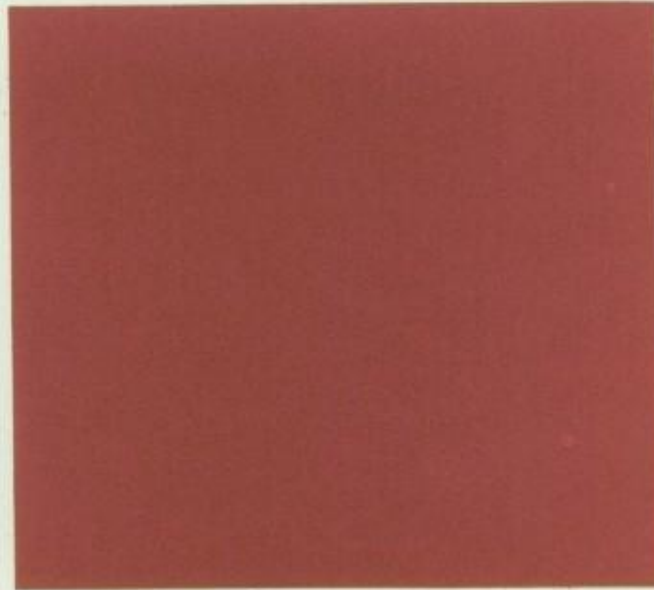

- a structure, building, institution – filled with –
- activity – plans, games, laughter, fun,
co-operation, parades, ideas, noise, dates,
creations, organizations, imagination
- spirit – excitement, determination, competition,
tension, trophies, cheers, trials, triumphs
- classes – tests, research, notes, homework,
reports, exams, books, facts, formulas,
concentration, attention, grades
- people – faces, friends, teachers,
personalities, smiles, hi's, hello's, goodbye's

. . . the ending of a beginning

Nancy Elizabeth Moore — As Queen of the 1965 Homecoming Court, Nancy is truly worthy of a place in the Hall of Fame. Serving as a cheerleader for three years, she has eagerly supported and participated in many Lee High activities. Nancy's natural warmth and ready smile make her a favorite among her classmates and teachers.

Thomas Douglas Dale — Doug has shown himself to be a versatile leader at Lee High through scholastic achievements, student government offices, and sports accomplishments. A very popular, well-rounded student, Doug leads the student body as President. The numerous honors which Doug has accumulated during his high school career rightly place him in the Hall of Fame.

Robert Adams Ivy, Jr. — As President of the National Honor Society and Editor of the MIRROR, Robert has filled many positions of leadership at Lee High. He is known to both teachers and classmates as a student of responsibility and honor. Both versatile and ambitious, Robert has many achievements and a very promising future.

Cynthia Lou Ross — Vivacious Cindy has served Lee High in its student government for four years. Always friendly and energetic, Cindy has willingly offered her leadership in many capacities. As President of the Senior Class, she has proven herself to be a capable worker and a friend to all.

Elizabeth Ingram Caldwell — As head cheerleader, "Boo" has contributed much to the spirit of Lee High. Friendly, colorful, and smart, Betsy has gained an impressive record during her four years in high school. She represents an ideal example of good citizenship and personal accomplishment. For these and many other reasons, Betsy will long be remembered at Lee High.

On August 10 few of the fifty-five Generals realized they were beginning practice for the North Big 8 Championship of 1964. It was evident to Coach Brewer that this team had the potential of being one of Lee High's all time greats. He knew the responsibility to see that this potential was utilized to the fullest was his and his assistants', Rush McKay, Bill Farris, and Robert Youngblood. After much practicing, a championship team was definitely in the making. Coach Brewer and his assistants had accomplished their task. After winning eight regular season games, Lee High had wrapped up the North Big 8 Championship. They met Gulfport in Gulfport for the State Championship and lost a heart-breaker by the narrow margin of 9 to 7.

Having six lettermen to return for the '64-'65 basketball season, Lee High finished the season by winning twelve games and losing five in the regular season. After winning its first five games, Lee High suffered its initial loss, to Tupelo. Lee High's offense was spearheaded by high-scoring Larry Guyton. The Generals won the Aberdeen tournament by defeating Okolona, Houston, and then beating Aberdeen in the finals. The Generals then traveled to Guin, Ala., where they netted another trophy by defeating Hamilton and Guin. The Generals were again victorious in Amory. By defeating Hatley and Belmont, they met Amory in the finals. They defeated Amory 69-53.

After winning three tournaments, the Generals were ready to participate in the Big Eight Tournament. Lee High met Jackson Murrah for the first game. Having to come from behind, Lee High beat the Mustangs 73-55. Then Lee High was defeated by a much taller Jackson Central by 63-83. Lee High then beat Clarksdale for the consolation game by 74-68.

In the District Tournament Lee High won its first two games over Aberdeen and Starkville. The defeat came from Kossuth; this ended the Generals' '64-'65 season.

catchers and pitchers

Again the Generals had a great baseball season for the 1965 year. Lee High opened up with a 12-3 victory over the Amory Tigers. The Generals won ten straight games before losing to Starkville by 7-8 and Aberdeen 0-2. The Generals then defeated Aberdeen 8 to 1 to win the South half of District 1. Lee High then went on to beat Tupelo two games in a row to clinch overall District 1. In the regionals, Lee High had high hopes of beating Oxford. Even though Logan pitched a great game, the Generals couldn't get enough runs to back him up. With the great pitching of Larry Guyton and Don Logan and the superb hitting of the entire team, the Generals ended the season with 13 wins and 3 losses.

Fletcher is congratulated on hitting a home run.

tennis team

*Back row—Jane Powers, Margie Powers, Alice Stallworth, Patsy Shewmake.
Front row—Carl Edwards, Kenny Williams, John Kaye, Birney Imes, III.*

The Lee High Tennis Team under the direction of Coach "Oop" Swoope ended a losing season with only one win against Amory. In the District I playoffs held at MSCW, Columbus finished in sixth place out of 12 competing teams. Representing Lee High in Girls' Singles was Patsy Shewmake who won second place in District and advanced to the State Semi-finals after defeating Gulfport and fourth-seeded Greenville. Patsy, the only Senior on the Varsity team, was the first person in the history of Lee High to letter six years in any sport. In the next two or three seasons, Coach Swoope plans to develop a winning team to live up to the standards which the Generals have set this year in athletic efforts.

Patsy Shewmake lettered 6 years in Tennis.

The Lee High golf team had a very successful '65 season. They won 9 out of their 10 matches and tied one. The Generals again came out on top of their district. George Guckert and Jim Cummings had low pars. In the Big Eight tournament held at Jackson this year, Lee High finished sixth out of about seventeen competing Big Eight schools.

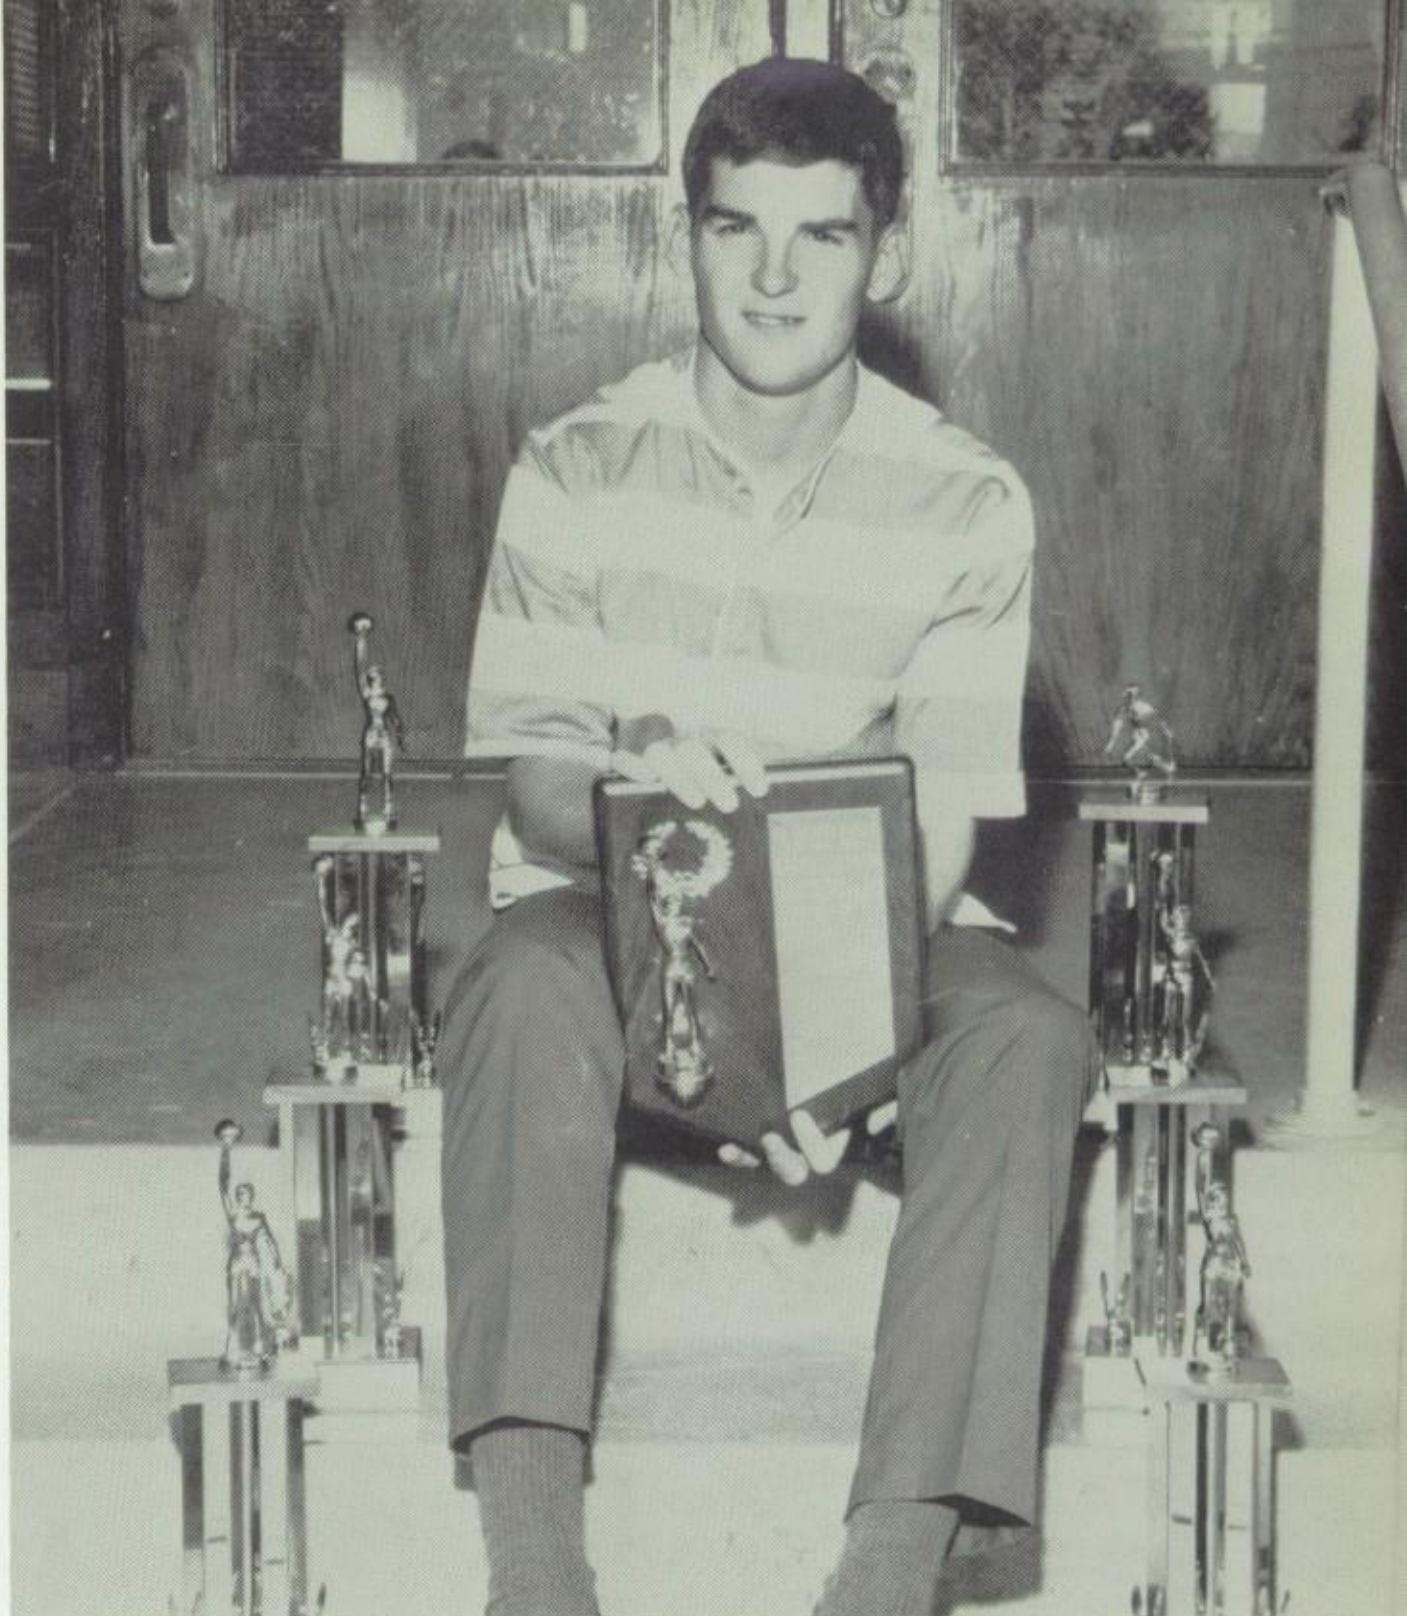

Top row—Gene Van Every, Jim Cummings, George Guckert, Hal Hamner, Coach Bourland

We sincerely appreciate the fine cooperation we received from these friends.

a final word

What could I say to thank so many people for so much? Mrs. Monroe Foster has been the perfect sponsor. This is her final year to work with the Maroon and White and we are all sorry to see her go. She has been not only a wonderful advisor, but also a wonderful friend. Who could have asked for more? Annual, I'm sure, will never be the same.

I especially want to thank someone that has done more than his share to help us. He is the one who got those "special" shots from just the right angle at just the right time. He has been great and I want to say so even if he is my father. The annual couldn't have been anything without Mr. Joe Sarcone.

There are so many more that have helped so much—Coach Carr, the faculty, and, of course, the staff members themselves.

A yearbook should be a living record telling the story of the personality of both the school and its students...in a way the students will remember themselves.

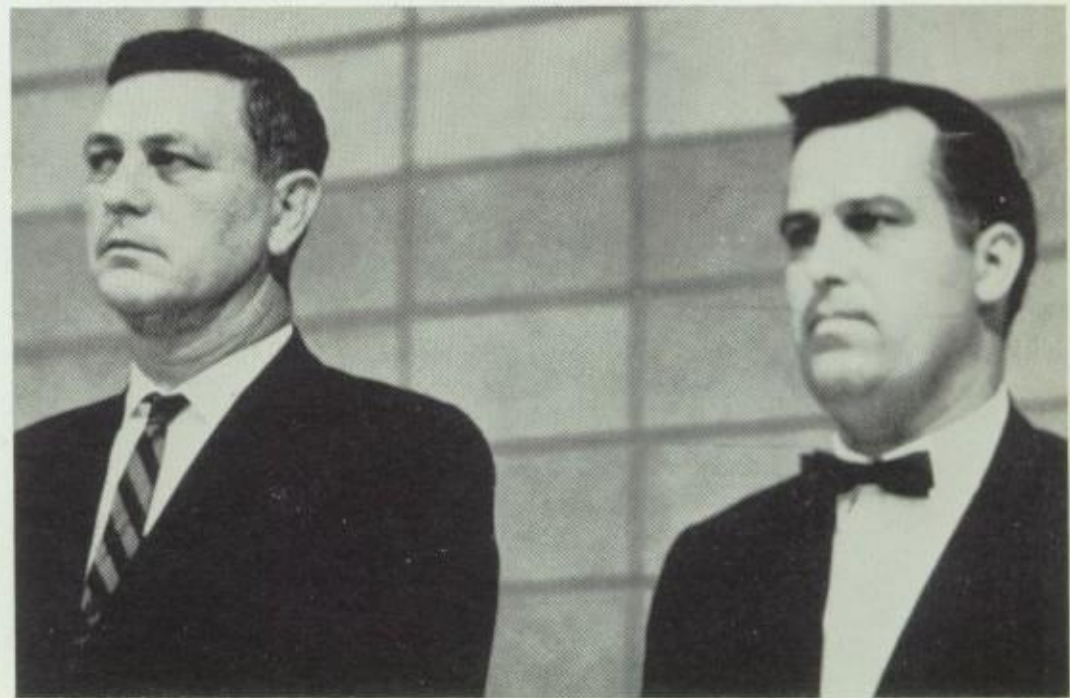

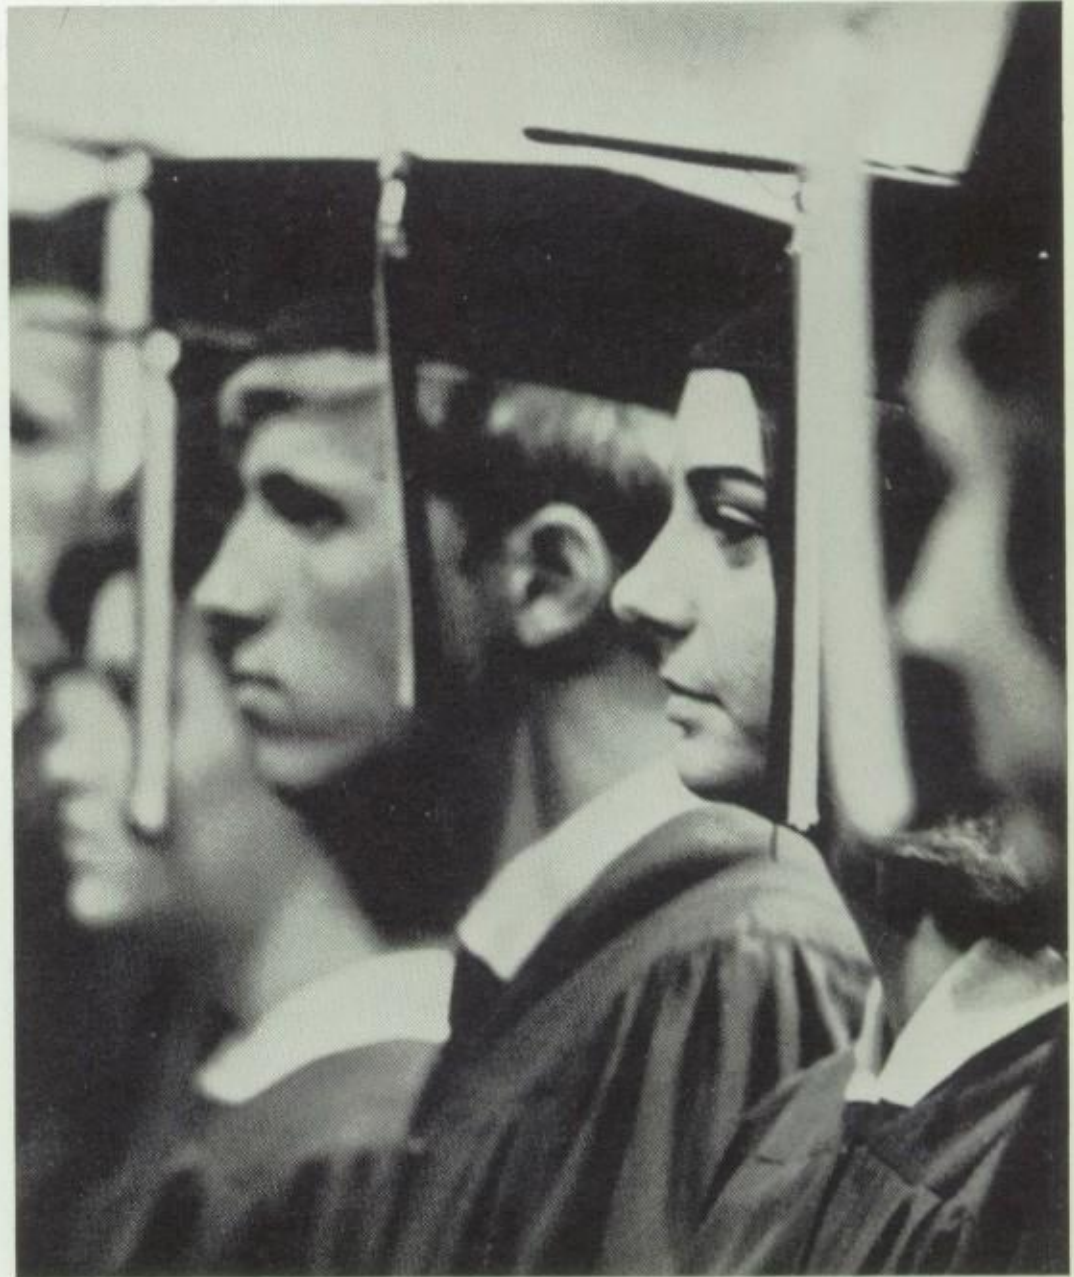

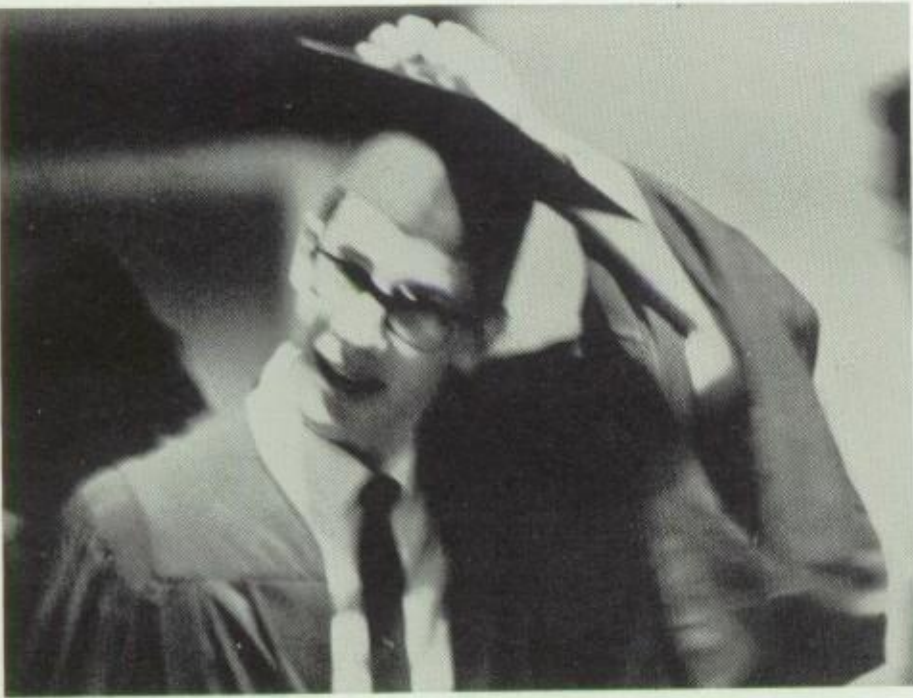

This year the Maroon and White staff has tried to do just that...to capture those fleeting expressions and events that are not only just a part of Lee High, but are Lee High itself.

It has been a pleasure.

May 31, 1965

A large, stylized handwritten signature in black ink. The signature is written in a cursive style, with the first letter 'S' being particularly large and looping. The name 'Sarcone' is clearly legible.

THE ROAD GOODBYE

The road I took was named Goodbye
 The path looked strange. I wondered why
 It left familiar things behind.
 A hand caught mine . . . I paid no mind.
 The stranger never once did say
 Just what had brought him on my way.
 On we went, and some afraid
 I wished I hadn't come, but stayed.
 All the friends that I once knew
 Took a road named Goodbye too.
 There were no two roads just the same
 Though all were called Goodbye by name.
 The road went on; we went on too,
 And I was sad, for then I knew
 That never could I be the same
 Having walked down Goodbye Land.
 And though I couldn't understand
 We walked together hand in hand.
 We said no words, but just walked on,
 I thought of things now past and gone.
 I thought of games I'd lost and won,
 I thought of all the things I'd done,
 I thought of those I loved and cared,
 Of times we'd had, of things we'd shared.
 I thought of those I'd come to know.
 Just knowing them—they'd helped me so.
 I thought of things, of tears I'd shed . . .
 Those same things now brought smiles instead.
 The tasks I'd done, those left to do,
 I wondered how I'd make it through
 When something inside seems to say,
 "The best you can from day to day."
 The way was rough; I knew the score,
 It never ends . . . there's always more.
 But now I know that all in all
 Each thing in its won place will fall.
 I thought of all the happy days,
 The sad ones now just seemed a haze,
 And in a flash I came to see
 How much the past had meant to me.
 We walked along—I wondered where
 The future led and what was there.
 The past still echoed from behind
 I was its, and it was mine.
 But in my heart was still a fear,
 And in my eye a shining tear;
 Yet on my face there was a smile,
 And we walked forward all the while.
 I walked along the road Goodbye.
 I looked back once . . . I heaved a sigh.
 Then I remembered at my side—
 My silent, but my constant guide.
 The stranger's hand I felt in mine.
 I looked into his face this time.
 I asked his name—he turned just so,
 He smiled and said, "I'm called Hello."
